

STATE OF THE DISCIPLINE IN THE ERA OF DEMOCRATIC DISCONTENT

Thursday, August 30, 8AM – 5:30PM

Hynes, 208

I. Connecting the Dots: From the APSA Sexual Harassment Survey to Studying Gender

8:00 – 9:30AM

Chair: Janelle Wong

Presenters: Dara Z. Strolovitch, Nadia E. Brown, Lisa Garcia Bedolla

II. Gender Disparities Throughout Political Science

10:00 – 11:30AM

Chair: Amanda Friesen

Discussant: Yanna Krupnikov

1. Michelle L. Dion, Sara McLaughlin Mitchell, Jane Lawrence Sumner; Do Altmetrics Amplify or Improve the Gender Gap in Scholarly Impact?
2. Malu A. C. Gatto, Anita R. Gohdes, Denise Traber, Mariken van der Velden; Selecting in or Selection out? Gender gaps and political methodology in Europe
3. Jeff Colgan; Gender Bias in IR Graduate Education? New Evidence from Syllabi
4. Paul A. Djupe, Amy Erica Smith, Anand Edward Sokhey; How Submission Practices Affect Publication Patterns in Political Science

III. Democratic Implications of a Mostly White Discipline I: Recruitment and Hiring

12:00 – 1:30PM

Chairs: Mary Hawkesworth, Robin L. Turner

Presenters: Paula D. McClain, Mala Htun, Lisa Garcia Bedolla, Errol A. Henderson, Stephanie McNulty, Jane Y, Junn

IV. Democratic Implications of a Mostly White Discipline II: Teaching and Research

2:00 – 3:30PM

Chair: Stephanie McNulty

Presenters: Mary Hawkesworth, Robin L. Turner, Kennan Ferguson, Ido Oren, Julia S. Jordan-Zachary, Erin Tolley

V. Studying American Muslims While Muslim: Challenges and Opportunities

4:00 – 5:30PM

Chair: Karam Dana

Presenters: Dalia Fikry Fahmy, Nazita Lajevardi, Hajer Al-Faham, Kassra AR Oskooii, Youssef Chouhoud